

Cloud architecture diagram

Images are uploaded to Azure container Registry.

Container app gets the new version of image and spins up new version with the latest image. It can be done manually or through CICD

Images are deployed using the docker login with username and password. For CICD, IAM keys are generated and provided in the secrets of repository.

URL to backend APIs are provided

Postgres Service